

Constrictors

Reptile	Features/Characteristics
Chameleon	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- It has bulging eyes which enable it to see all directions at the same time.</li> <li>- It changes its colour for protection and to trap its prey.</li> <li>- It has a long sticky tongue to trap its prey.</li> <li>- It has well developed feet and tail for catching and gripping small twigs branches of trees.</li> <li>- Chameleons feed on harmful insects like houseflies and mosquitoes.</li> </ul>
Gecko	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- It has sticky tiny hair under its feet that grip to the wall/ceiling.</li> <li>- It feeds on harmful insects like houseflies and mosquitoes.</li> </ul>
Tortoises Turtles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- They protect themselves by hiding into their hard shells.</li> <li>- Turtles have flippers for swimming in water.</li> <li>- They feed on plants, mushrooms, insects, sea snails and jellyfish.</li> </ul>
Crocodiles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- They have long strong tails and teeth for protection against enemies.</li> <li>- They use their tails and teeth for attacking their prey.</li> <li>- They live both in water and on land. They can hold the breath for long time under water.</li> <li>- They lay eggs in sand. Sand provides warmth for eggs to hatch</li> <li>- Sand protects their eggs from being eaten by predators.</li> </ul>