Read the passage below carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions about it

Kigatto is a very humble and beautiful girl. All the people in Dundu village love her for that. During her primary school, she was named the politest prefect. This helped in her studies. Whenever she asked a teacher for assistance, she always got it quickly.

One day she was chosen to represent her school at the district prefects' workshop. It was to take place at the district headquarters. Her father bought her a heavy rectangular bag in which to carry her things. On the real day, she took a taxi to Namataba Trading Centre. From there, she got a motorcyclist who offered to take her to her destination.

When she had travelled about one kilometer, she felt hungry. She had not eaten supper the night before. This was because she was excited. She asked the motorcyclist to stop at the junction where there were several shops. After taking a soda and some fruit, she continued with the journey. However, after sometime she got scared. She thought she had taken a wrong route but the motorcyclist told her not to get worried because he knew the way.

At last they arrived at Ngule District Headquarters. She was then directed to the offices. She paid the motorcyclist and thanked him for being a sincere and good man.

Wait a minute, look at our rich environment
Full of materials at every corner.

Clay for brick laying and pot making.
Papyrus for baskets and mats.

Women and men, have vacant land.
For crop growing and animal rearing.
In addition to fishing in the village swamps.
All this to get us money.
