SECTION B

51. Read the poem very carefully, and then answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

TRAFFIC JAM

Here I'm, the traffic jam,
I'm hated by lovers of time,
The motorists and cyclists,
Not forgetting traffic police.

I'm an enemy of road users,
I'm caused by bad road users,
When they knock each other,
Breaking the rules of the road.

I come anytime and anywhere,
I'm an epidemic of the rich,
When they grow rich and buy cars,
I grow big and very long.

Traffic police think and think,
Roads are made wider and wider,
More traffic lights are installed,
But I'm back any time I want.

At the peak of my time,
I overflow to the pavements,
When the motorists are tired and sad,
The pedestrians are happy and safe.

Questions

(a) What is the poem about?

.....

(b) Why do you think motorists hate traffic jam?

(c) According to stanza two, what is the main cause of traffic jam?

.....
.....

(e) Mention one thing that has been done to solve the problem of traffic jam.

(f) When does the traffic jam overflow to the pavements?

(g) How many stanzas does this poem have?

(h) Why do you think pedestrians are very happy and safe when there is too much traffic jam?

(i) Suggest another word or group of words which can be used in place of those underlined in the poem.

(i) epidemic.....
(ii) installed.....
