

P.6 MID ENGLISH MARKING GUIDE

- | | | |
|------------|---------------|---------------|
| 1. so | 6. coughing | 11. loosen |
| 2. himself | 7. their | 12. ninth |
| 3. off | 8. gone | 13. addresses |
| 4. the | 9. geese | 14. decision |
| 5. where | 10. carefully | 15. heaviest |
16. } any meaningful grammatically correct sentence
17. }
18. care of
19. carbon copy
20. the conductress forgot to ask the fare.
21. The bank manager left the bank late. / The bank manager departed at the bank late.
22. bank / check/ receipt / withdraw
23. argue / asleep / call / clap
24. The mechanic hasn't been paid.
25. All pedestrians should be careful.
26. We have taken a year without holding elections.
27. The motion is very easy.
28. Her sister does not like rude people.
29. shelves
30. trolleys
31. The speaker talked to the timekeeper in order to get time to summarise his points.
32. Remmy is too fearful to debate in public.
33. We seldom travel to the village to check on our grandmother.
34. A computer and a telephone are very useful in communication. / A computer and a telephone are both very useful in communication.
35. The national anthem is being sung by the Rwandan girl.
36. A note book is not as important as a diary.
37. What a neat hard writing Doreen has!
38. The ruler is mine. The ruler belongs to me.
39. We don't like watching cartoons, do we?
40. The more letters the pupils wrote, the pen pals they got.
41. Either the audience or the main speakers will occupy the front seats.

42. The naughty boy was punished because he abused a passer-by.
43. The story which was written by the candidate was not true.
44. Unless you sign the check, it will bounce.
45. The police officer was so polite that he did not mistreat the criminal.
46. A kilogram of sugar costs four thousand shillings.
47. Sarah shouldn't buy a new stamp.
48. People who are hardworking are nice to work with.
49. We are likely to learn letter writing next year.
50. The blue book is bigger than the red one.

section B

51. The motorists / drivers are the people driving at a high speed.
 - (b) There are three means of transport talked about in stanza one.
 - (c) I think, the traffic lights are changing to let other road users move on the road.
 - (d) The traffic officers are at every corner of the road.
 - (e) The children are standing because they are scared of the traffic.
 - (f) Pedestrians are crossing the road.
 - (g) The brake pedals are faulty.
 - (h) (i) high (ii) worried / terrified
 - (i) one person moving / walking on the road.
52. f-b-e-i-d-h-a-g-c-j
53. Tiiti Primary School gave out the report card above.
 - (b) Namusoke Jane's report card is shown above.
 - (c) I think the class teacher teaches SST.
 - (d) The learner's best subject is maths / Maths is the learner's best subject.
 - (e) The class teacher advised the pupil to work hard in English.

(B) (a) Doris Hary is shown

 - (b) The diary is for the month of February 2018.
 - (c) The teachers wrote the schemes of work
 - (d) The head teacher will talk to the inspector of schools on Monday.
 - (e) The teacher's meeting was held at 4:30p.m
54. The conversation is about a trip to Mbarara.
 - (b) The debate will take place at Aga-khan Mbarara.
 - (c) The motion mentioned in the conversation is "UPE has done more harm that good."

(d) Noren is the chairperson of the debate.

(e)The debating society is going to meet Agakhan Mbarara.

(f)Universal Primary Education

(g)Noreen and Henry are talking in the conversation

(h)(i) time keeper (ii) chairperson etc

A TRIP T MBARARA

55. 304

23rd January

Cindy

pleasure

happy

third

Mombasa

visit

discovered

cousin