51. Read the passage below carefully and, in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Abubaker went to Kibaata market last Saturday. He was sent by his mother to buy some food stuff. Before he left home for the market, Mother reminded him to be mindful of the pick – pockets on the way and at the market. She told him to keep the money out of the reach of such people. Abubaker took his mother’s advice seriously.

At the market, Abu was surprised to find so many people that he could hardly access the food stalls. The people were moving into almost all directions while others were selling clothes and kitchenware like saucepans. He squeezed through to reach the place where food was sold. On his way, he approached fruit sellers. He decided to buy some since they were cheaply sold. He bought a big yellow mango at sh. 1,000 and a pineapple at sh. 1,500. Then he proceeded to the food section.

Here, a lot of sellers called him to their stalls. One of them called him by his name “Abu, buy from me,” she said. He decided to buy from her. He bought matooke, Irish potatoes and a kilogramme of meat. As he looked for the money, he realised he did not get change from the people from whom he bought the fruit. He went back, and honestly, was given sh. 19,400 as his change. He returned to the food stalls and paid the lady. After which he went back to Bitama Village with sh. 1400 as his final change.

On arrived back home, Mother was angered to see the fruits which she had not sent Abu for. Abu explained why he had to buy the fruit. Mother told him to cut the fruit for breakfast and he was shocked to find that these pieces of fruit were just big, but rotten.

Mother advised her son always to have a shopping list and stick to it, to avoid buying things not planned for.

There is nothing as good as a family,
The basis of one's origin,
The origin of language and culture,
The culture of dressing and discipline,
Attitude towards the world and religion
All determined by a family.

There is nothing as good as a family,
A nuclear family where I hail,
Father, mother with my siblings
Small but proud of you I am,
As proud as a peacock I will always be,
To Mother endless thanks I owe,
For she's the only bread winner for us.

Father is so nice to us all day,
Taking care of us from dawn to dusk,
Preparing all the meals for us all
The twin brothers mother and I
Are you meant to be a woman, father?
Go and rest, you always say to us,
Wake up for lunch after one hour,
All is fun with my family,
Long live, Daddy Long Live Mummy!
