SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

In Kibuye Market, there is a very talented carpenter called Hillary Apetiku. He owns a carpentry workshop. He makes all sorts of amazing things like study chairs, beautiful tables, and good beds. Hillary is known for his good work. People come from all around to buy his wonderful products.

Hillary uses many tools like hammers, saws, chisels, and sandpaper to shape his work. He is very skilled at his work and is proud of every piece he makes. His workshop is always filled with the sweet scent of cut wood and the sound of happy conversations as he works with the workers.

Carpentry has brought many good things to Hillary's life. He earns a good income from selling his products. This makes him take care of his family's basic needs and pay school fees for his children. But that's not all! He also exports most of his products to Kenya, where he has a large market. This has helped him become a successful businessman.

Hillary's success in carpentry has also allowed him to start a bakery for his wife, Sheenah, in Jinja. Sheenah is a good baker. Her delicious bread and pastries are loved by many. The bakery has become a growing business, and the family is happy for the chances that carpentry has brought them.

We can all learn from Hillary's love for his work. One day, we'll become skilled carpenters like him!

Dear Mother,

Good morning! I am glad to write to you. I hope you are all doing well at home.

I am _____ to thank you very much for paying the study trip fee for me. We visited _____ places in Western Uganda such as Kitagata Hot springs and Mt. Rwenzori. I was lucky to see the spring that drips _____ water all the time. I am happy that we travelled _____ to and fro.

We had been studying about these places in _____ and I could just imagine the snow on the top of Mt. Rwenzori but I was _____ to see them.

We shall do end of term exams this _____ and we shall break up for holidays next Friday. I am very sure I will pass the end of term exams. Most of the questions will be about the trip. Please, pray for me so that I may do well in these forthcoming exams.

Kindly send my warmest greetings to Dad and all my _____ at home. I will be happy to see them when I come over.

53. Read the poem below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

The sun is shining,
It's time to dry crops
Since it is a dry season
We cannot plant crops now
Because they will dry.

The wind is blowing
From the East to the West
A sign that it'll soon rain
Farmers can now winnow their crops
And wait for the rains.

Rain, rain, go away,
Sing the little children
As the farmer changes the song
To rain come right now
For it's time to plant seeds in the gardens.
