One evening, while Peter Twambale was listening to news read on radio by Sungura Luwagga, he heard that the P.L.E results for 2015 had been released. Twambale became worried because he was one of the 22 candidates who had sat P.L.E that year at St. Savio School.

Releasing the results at the Ministry Headquarters, Ntinda, the Hon. Minister of Education, Sports, Science and Technology, Hon. Jesca Alupo, was happy to note that most of the candidates had passed.

The general performance showed that mathematics was the best done subject. The Minister congratulated all the teachers of mathematics upon overcoming the old thinking that the subject was hard. She hoped that the country would be able to produce more Engineers and Doctors.

She thanked pupils who had worked hard to produce the wonderful results. She also thanked the teachers who taught those young men and women tirelessly. She was happy with the parents who send their children to school. She, however, condemned those parents who pull out their children from school to stop the habit otherwise the law would get them.

I have been buried,

My stem is cut,
Into small pieces,
And buried into shallow graves
Two feet apart,
My body parts are placed
To cover a length and a width of a field,
In a week's time, I rise from the dead,
With my delicate leaves bending for the wind to pass.

My stem growing straight into space.
My feet swell where I was buried.
Good news to them, the farmers,
As they dig out my feet,
Peel, cut and boil them.

With delicious sauce,
My feet are eaten.
With fried, the young chat as they eat,
Chips, chips, chips.
Delicious cassava chips.
