THE BEAUTY OF AN EXTENDED FAMILY

I have moved to different places. I have visited big hotels and big cities. I have visited different villages but my home remains my best place

Our home is located in Mpaali Village. We have a big piece of land. All my relatives live there. We enjoy a lot of things. In the first place we speak one language. This means it is easy to communicate to each other.

In case of any misunderstandings, our grandfather calls all of us and helps us to reconcile. We have free labour. We join effort in each and every garden work. We have a lot of security because in case of any attack, we fight together.

Every time I leave home, I feel lonely. I miss my grandmother's stories around the fire place. Our aunt takes us through special counselling and guidance. This prepares us for adulthood. The boys also get their guidance and counselling from Uncle Muleme. Such sessions have helped us to be well - mannered children. I wish all children would grow up in such a big family.

You happen every where
We can't hide from you.

Our siblings are sobbing in grief
We even fear to use any vehicles
When we try to board vehicles
We get nightmares of our parents
You killed on Bamba Road

The lives of the young
And the old
You taken
You have left our
Mothers and fathers
Widow and widowers

Drivers are left lame and dead
All road users stay warned
Respect the High way code
We can stop this monster.
